

Saija Leikola
PhD (Pharm)
Expert Pharmacist, Association of Finnish Pharmacies

Master's degree in Pharmacology in 1998. PhD on Finnish Comprehensive Medication Review procedure for community-dwelling elderly at the Division of Social Pharmacy in 2012. Research topics related to medication review procedures and their outcomes, continuing education training, and geriatric pharmacotherapy, especially related to inappropriate prescribing among the aged. Current position involves e.g., developing pharmaceutical care services for community pharmacies. Maintaining scientific interests by supervising medication review-related theses.