

Biography Tsakitzidis Giannoula, PT

Researcher at the University Antwerp, Faculty of Medicine, Department of Primary and Interdisciplinary Care.

Giannoula Tsakitzidis is the vice chairman of the steering group which shaped the educational module 'Interprofessional Collaboration in Health Care'. After her studies of Physiotherapy at K.U.Leuven (1998) she worked as self-employed physiotherapist (1998-2004). From 2001 until 2009 she worked for Artesis University College, Antwerp department Health Care. She introduced the courses Communication in the educational program of Physiotherapy. She coordinated the internationalization of the educational programs Occupational therapy and Physiotherapy. Currently she is doing her PhD research on the effect of learning to collaborate interprofessionally on the quality of care for geriatric chronic patients living in nursing homes.