

SHORT CV OF J.W.F. (FOPPE) VAN MIL

Professional career

Foppe van Mil (16 July 1950) was registered community pharmacist from 1978 till 2000 in a rural area of the Netherlands. Since 2000 he is pharmacy consultant on PPR and Pharmaceutical Care, and works occasionally as interim managing pharmacist, last in 2010-2011.

Academic career

From 1993 till 2000 he worked at the University of Groningen. The investigation of the export of Dutch drugs to developing countries resulted in the report 'Dutch Drugs in developing countries'. In January 2000 he concluded his PhD at the working group Social Pharmacy and Pharmacoepidemiology of the University Centre of Pharmacy in Groningen on the concept of Pharmaceutical Care. His supervisors were Prof. Th.F.J. Tromp, Prof L.T.W. de Jong-van den Berg and Prof. J.C. McElnay.

Excerpt other activities

In 1985 he founded Pharma Selecta, an independent and critical Dutch drug bulletin. Between 1994 and 2002 he was member of the Committee for continuing professional education of the section Community Pharmacy of FIP. In July 1997 he published the book 'Pharmacists and Aids, an unknown territory', together with 8 colleagues. Between 1996 and 1999 he was Chairman of the Pharmaceutical Care Network Europe (PCNE), and currently he is the professional secretary of that association. Between 1995 and 2002 he co-organised national Symposia on Pharmaceutical Care in the Netherlands. Since 2000 he is Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal for Clinical Pharmacy. He currently teaches medication review, community pharmacy practice and the writing of scientific papers and abstracts in several national and international continuing education programs and conferences.